

8.0 IRREVERSIBLE COMMITMENTS OF RESOURCES

Approximately 15 million tons of bedrock will be irreversibly removed from the subject site and the topography will be altered. The existing west-directed rock face along the east side of the north-south rock cut would be replaced with inward-directed rock faces. The existing topography would be replaced with a nearly level mine floor with a high ridge to the east.